

Student Computer Use Agreement

Conditions for student access to NPBHS computers

A student will be permitted to use the school computers only after the student and a parent or guardian have read this document and signed the contract at enrolment time.

Students must accept that absolute privacy of their personal files on the school network cannot be guaranteed.

Rules for use of the computers

Students must:

- Use the computers and the Internet for educational purposes only.
- Acknowledge any information sourced from the Internet or computers when it is used in assignments and reports.
- Report immediately to their supervising teacher: any information they receive that is inappropriate or makes them feel uncomfortable; any security problem they identify on the network; any accidental visit to a site containing obscene and/or inappropriate material
- Act safely on the Internet and not disclose your or other people's personal details

Students must not:

- Try to get unauthorised access to any computer system (including attempts to log in as another person)
- Make deliberate attempts to disrupt the system or destroy data and/or hardware (including the uploading or creation of viruses)
- Offer, provide or purchase products or services that are not related to a school programme
- Engage in any illegal act
- Knowingly access or distribute material that is obscene, or that encourages illegal acts or violence
- Harass another person or use obscene or disrespectful language in public messages, private messages or in web pages
- Knowingly post information about a person or organisation that may ruin their good name
- Supply through the computer system or internet personal facts, (including addresses and phone numbers), about themselves or other people
- Post chain letters or engage in sending annoying or unnecessary messages to a large number of people.

Consequences of misuse

Any student who breaks the rules stated above may not be allowed internet or computer access. Other school disciplinary action and/or appropriate legal action may also be taken. The student's parents or caregivers will be held responsible for any costs, damages or claims that may arise from the student's misuse of computers (including the intranet, internet, email, software or hardware).
