Education Outside The Classroom (EOTC) Policy available on the school's website

Disclosure of Risk

Risk is an essential part of the adventure and provides the challenge to the outdoor experiential learning process. Risk can be managed to acceptable levels, so while people can achieve the benefits and enjoyment from being involved in risk activities.

Not all risks are foreseeable or can be managed without the possibility of injury. The school has a challenge by choice policy, no student will be forced to do an activity.

New Plymouth Boys' High School will ensure all reasonable and practical steps are taken so the activities are managed within acceptable levels of risk.

Acknowledgement of Risk

As a parent/caregiver

- I agree to my child taking part in EOTC events. I acknowledge the need for them to behave responsibly.
- I understand that there are risks associated with involvement in New Plymouth Boys' High School Education outside the classroom events/activities and these risks can't be completely eliminated.
- I understand that the school will identify any foreseeable risks or hazards and implement correct management procedures to eliminate, isolate or minimize those hazards.
- I understand where practical my son will be involved in the development of safety procedures. I will do my best to ensure that my child follows these procedures.
- The school has taken reasonably practicable precautions to ensure the safety of the activity and if my child acts outside of the instructions given, then I acknowledge that it is done at my child's risk and I release the school from all liability for the consequences of the actions or inaction.
- I know I am able to ask questions of the school about the activities my son will be involved in to gain a better understanding of the risks involved.
- I understand my son may withdraw from an activity if he feels at risk, but this must be done in consultation with the person in charge.
- I understand the school does not accept responsibility for loss or damage to personal property.

I/We give permission for my/our son to be involved in activities outside the classroom and understand all reasonable care and supervision will be provided.

Please Initial

Please note that it is very important that student details such as health information and emergency contacts are kept up-to-date.

Use of Internet and Computers

Students are provided with Internet access through parent consent as part of the enrolment process. The Internet is to be used for educational purposes, and although the school has taken precautions to eliminate controversial material, it is not possible to restrict access to all such materials and therefore, access remains the students responsibility.

Students will be provided with an individual login which will give them access to the school's network. As part of this they will get a personal email address and have access to the Internet. While the school will do its best to restrict student access to offensive/dangerous or illegal material on the Internet or through email it is the responsibility of your son to have no involvement with such material.

Important to Read

Personal Information And The Privacy Act (2020)

New Plymouth Boys' High School collects and keeps a large amount of personal information about each student. The Privacy Act 2020 protects the information you give the School and details conditions under which personal information can be obtained, used, stored and exchanged with other interested parties. The School has policies and procedures which reflect the thirteen Privacy Principles as set out in the Act to protect this information.

The School collects personal information from its students so that they can be enrolled at the School, have their attendance and progress recorded, be entered for examinations, or be contacted by the School. The School also collects information about the caregivers of the student so that they may be informed of student progress, or contacted by the School, because the safety of the student is important.

Personal information may be disclosed to other education agencies, such as the Ministry of Education and the New Zealand Qualifications Authority; and to Government agencies such as the New Zealand Police if they demonstrate a statutory right to obtain it. Personal information may be retained by the School after the student leaves in order for the School to maintain a list of past students. Personal information may also be disclosed to the New Plymouth Boys' High School Old Boys' Association and the New Plymouth Boys' High School Parent Teacher Association to assist in compiling its membership register.

Under the Privacy Act 2020 you have the right of access to all personal information held by the School about you. You also have a right to ask the School to correct any information held which is inaccurate. You can exercise that right by applying to the School.

You also have an obligation to advise the School if/when any of the personal information you have provided changes. If for any reason your enrolment is not accepted, this enrolment form will be destroyed.

In the interest of safety and security the School requires parent permission for the publishing of student's names or photographs on our website, and in our newsletters.

We will share, if given permission, no more than a student's first name and/or photograph via the newsletter, or the wider online community via the school website.

Please indicate your wishes by ticking the relevant box -

I give permission for my child's name, photograph, or work to appear in the school newsletter, school website, and in promotions on the school's social media.
